NIGHT MOVES 7

Dear

Mark

Just a few lines to up-date you on events of late. As some of you will know, we've been out 'on the road' recently, playing mainly local and London gigs, including dates at The Marquee, Rock Garden and the Golden Lion. We have been seen at some of these by representatives of 'Melody Maker', 'Sounds' and 'Kerrang!', so there will hopefully be some reviews forthcoming (if not already). We will be continuing live work until Christmas, hopefully covering more areas of the country as finances allow.

Overleaf, you will find a list of our forthcoming dates. It's never a bad idea to check before going along to a gig, so we've included telephone numbers and other info as we have it. Whilst 8pm is the listed start time, our appearance may vary from 8.30pm to 11pm. Those of you who received free tickets for the Rock Garden will do so again - if you'd like any more, please let us know. There will no doubt be some additional gigs - we'll try to let you know; our dates are currently being featured regularly in the Music Papers (thanks to Keith Goodwin, our PR man!!).

On the recording front, good news and bad news. The good news is that we have released a single - it is "Eleanor Rigby"/"East of Eden" on REVO records Cat No REVO09 (both tracks incidentally are also on the album). National distribution has not yet been sorted out, so if you'd like a copy, write to us here - the cost will be £1.20, including postage and packing.

The bad news is that the album has been delayed. This is for a variety of reasons (including financial) and has upset us all greatly, as several of the factors are out of our control. We are in fact having to re-do some bits of it, due to "engineer malfunction" and this will hopefully take place soon so that the album can be mixed and released by the end of this year. To say that we are annoyed by the delay (this album was commenced in November 1981!) is an understatement. However, we're sure when you hear it you'll feel it was worth the wait. Oblivious to the impending delay, we went ahead and produced a whole load of new merchandise to go with the album and this is ready even if the album isn't. So in the absence of a separate sheet, we've listed the new items overleaf.

Dear Mark

Single is enclosed - hope you like it.

Best wishes,

Simon
